Aurora, a radio disc jockey, is known throughout the entire town for her constant smiles, her soothing voice and her gentility. But when her selfish father sells the family home, she's confronted with her greatest life crisis to date. You see, hidden in that home are her "cursed diaries," filled with bad-mouthing and personal secrets! She has to get them back, so she breaks into her former home in the dead of night.... But before she can get much farther than one step into the house, she bumps into the current owner, a college professor named Luke. Then, in the dark of night, their bodies entangle so close that their lips meet!
