Only a few days into camp and socially challenged Cassie has already kissed a boy! There's a big part of Cassie who really likes having feelings for someone. But another part of her wonders if Micah will just distract her from her surfing. And then there's a third part—the part that's avoided the ocean since that fateful day. And if that part doesn't find a way to get over itself, Cassie may have to say good-bye to pro-surfing forever.
