Historias humanas de perros y gatos (Spanish Edition) Gustavo Castro Caycedo

No es exagerado decir que Historias humanas de perros y gatos, de Gustavo Castro Caicedo, es una enciclopedia rigurosa y sentida sobre las relaciones entre seres humanos y sus mascotas. El autor escoge historias que desvelan el amor, el sufrimiento, y sobre todo una gran lección que nos deparan los animales: su infinita lealtad, que logra despertar nuestras fibras más íntimas.

El ya fallecido Chigüiro, un gato humanamente maravilloso, sirve de inspiración al autor para emprender esta odisea. Compartir su experiencia y la de numerosas personas como la de Rafael Pombo, Abraham Lincoln, Álvaro Castaño Castillo, Álvaro Mutis, Aníbal Vallejo, Fernando Vallejo, Claudia Galindo, Clara López, Gabriela Arciniegas, la doctora Marta C. Gómez, experta en clonación felina, Antonio Gala; David Cameron, Bill Clinton, Brigitte Bardot, Vladimir Putin, entre otros, mostrando su lado más humano o gatuno o perruno, invitándonos a ahondar en sentimientos que nos ponen a reflexionar sobre la ética y dignidad humanas.

Estas frases de Albert Schweitzer, resumen el espíritu del libro: "El animal es superior al hombre porque no tiene pecado, no conoce el lenguaje de la mentira ni la hipocresía de los humanos. El animal actúa por instinto y el instinto jamás puede ser malo, de ahí que todos los animales sean buenos por naturaleza. Hemos de lograr que el amor a los animales desplace el horror a los animales".
