Irrepressible widow Sally Driver, owner of a New Age coffee bar and mother of a sassy five-year-old, is trying to get on with her life. While packing up her late husband's clothes, she discovers a stack of letters—cloying, unbearably flowery love letters—from someone named Laura. Had Paul been sneaking out on her? She wants answers!

Todd Sloane was Paul's best friend, but he doesn't know anything about this letter-writing Laura. When he reads her love notes, he feels even more betrayed than Sally. What kind of guy doesn't tell his closest buddy he's having an affair? Todd wants answers, too!

Forging an uneasy alliance, Sally and Todd start looking for Laura—but somewhere along the way, their passion for those answers turns into an entirely different kind of passion. Suddenly Paul's flaky wife is the sexiest woman Todd's ever seen. And to her surprise, Sally finds Paul's straight-arrow pal simply irresistible. Now what? Do they let go of the past—or keep searching for answers to questions that may no longer matter?
