Elegía (Spanish Edition) Philip Roth

La nueva novela de Philip Roth es una historia íntima y universal sobre la pérdida, el arrepentimiento y el estoicismo. El autor de La conjura contra América (Literatura Mondadori, 2005) desvía ahora su atención hacia la lucha crónica de un hombre contra la mortalidad. El destino del protagonista de la novela comienza con la primera y abrumadora confrontación con la muerte en las idílicas playas de sus veranos infantiles, pasando por los problemas familiares y los logros profesionales en su edad adulta, hasta llegar a su vejez, momento en el que se siente desgarrado al comprobar el deterioro de sus contemporáneos y el suyo propio. Creativo publicitario de éxito con una agencia de publicidad en Nueva York, el protagonista es padre de dos hijos de un primer matrimonio, que lo desprecian, y de una hija de un segundo matrimonio, que lo adora, además del amado hermano de un buen hombre cuyo bienestar físico despierta en él una amarga envidia y el solitario ex marido de tres mujeres con quien ha mantenido matrimonios desastrosos. Es, por fin, alguien que acaba siendo aquello que no quería llegar a ser.

Elegía hace referencia a una obra de teatro alegórica y anónima del siglo XV, un clásico del antiguo drama inglés, cuyo tema es la evocación de la vida en la muerte.
