Over the summer, Rinn stopped taking her bi-polar meds and blames herself and the voices she heard for her grandmother's tragic death. To get a new start, Rinn and her mother are moving back to her mom's small hometown and Rinn has promised to never miss a pill again. The fresh start is just what Rinn needs. She falls in with the popular girls at her new school and she falls for very cute "farmer boy" Nate. But River Hills High School has a secret. The ghost of Annaliese, a girl who died when Rinn's mother was a student there, haunts a hallway the teens call The Tunnel. Rinn's not sure she believes it, but slowly Annaliese seems to be punishing those who enter the tunnel alone. A chorus soloist loses her voice, a star cheerleader falls off the pyramid, and then it gets worse-worse as in death. Rinn still doesn't know if Annaliese is real, and there's only one way to find out. Rinn needs to ditch her bi-polar meds again and see what the voices are really trying to say....

Angel Sullivan:

As a university student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's spirit or real their leisure activity. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring along with can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this The Unquiet can make you really feel more interested to read.
