Ruby's Misfits Pam Fish

Ruby Watson, marked by an unhappy past, finds fulfilment in living for others – the ‘misfits’ whose lives she transforms in the turbulent post-war years. She survives a childhood in the London Blitz, only to find her young life overturned by destructive family secrets.

But Ruby’s dauntless spirit carries her through, even when the death of her mother leaves her looking after her baby sister Grace.

So begins a new kind of family that the warm hearted Ruby gathers round her in the family home in Battersea: her ‘misfits’ who range from Grace to an eccentric tramp discovered in her cellar. Yet while she nurtures the lives of others, Ruby conceals her inner loneliness. Charming gifted Angus, her first sweetheart, seems lost to her, so, with so much love to give, who will love Ruby . . .?

From Tim Wilson, who also writes as Jude Morgan, author of Passion and The Taste of Sorrow: Pam Fish writes with warmth and pace, her people are realistic and sympathetic, and she has a lovely touch in evoking the past and how our lives change through it.
