One juicy mystery, mustard and relish included.

Mojo Mysteries, Book 1

Three years after solving the hundred-year-old murder case that brought them together, Greg Woodhall and Adrian Broussard have settled into life together in the colorful college town of Chapel Hill. Adrian's doctorate research and Greg's two jobs keep them busy, but they have each other and life is good.

When Greg is offered the chance to help Bay City Paranormal scope out the historic PlayMakers Theater's rumored spirits, he's excited to get involved—at first. But as the protoplasmic trail unexpectedly shifts to Dogopolis, where Greg works part time, he senses something in the air besides the mouthwatering aroma of gourmet hot dogs.

There's an entity that the team can't quite get a handle on, but it's creating havoc in Greg's relationship with Adrian. Things that leave him doubting his own sanity. When the team finally uncovers the truth, no one is prepared for the danger—or what they'll have to do to stop the thing plaguing DogO before it stops them. Permanently.

Warning: This book contains a spooky mystery, unusual hot dog toppings, and a fast food joint that may or may not be haunted. May cause random hot dog cravings.
