A COWBOY'S QUEST

When Link Lochlin was thrown from a wild bronc that busted his arm, broke his leg and sorely bruised his ego, he likely would have died without the help of a giant of a blacksmith named Evan Thompson. Link owed Thompson his life, but all the smith asks is that Link deliver three chisels once his wound have healed. Never one to sit still for long, Link is back in the saddle and heading off on his quest before his casts are off. Little does he suspect this simple delivery will lead him straight into a gang of horse thieves and an adventure that will forever change his life.
