Catching a Catch Bob Cohn

This delightful romantic comedy opens on a sad note: A successful ad agency executive loses his perfect wife of 29 wonderful years. Beginning at her funeral, footloose women offer the newly eligible “Catch” whatever it takes to inveigle their way into his upscale country club lifestyle, requiring him to conserve his sexual stamina as he juggles the challenges of his changed lifestyle as a wealthy single father. Meanwhile, a new executive at the Agency’s largest client is herself a “Catch”. A beautiful, financially successful single mom with a penthouse hi-rise condo, she is thrown into the widower’s life by her blustery tycoon employer. Their antics while working together on two major ad campaigns nearly derail their careers, causing chaotic turmoil among their colleagues, friends and families.
