My name is Levi. I am an angel prince sent to Earth to protect the fold, ensure God's providences, retaliate against God's foes, and do God's bidding for the redeemed in Christ. This is the story of one of my charges as he endeavors to glorify God and humbly serve man. Ethan Moses does not live the typical sedentary Christian life. In his quest to serve God, Ethan meets with many obstacles. He builds a church only to see it burn to the ground. He encounters racism and bigotry of the worst kind. He struggles to find his soul mate after losing her once before. But through all this, Ethan never loses sight of God's wonderful ability to turn what seems disastrous into a marvelous blessing. The Surrender of Ethan Moses, in a story that spans almost a century, follows Ethan through mysterious rendezvous in Venice, bait and switch scams in Chicago, and even a few chance meetings with the angel Levi himself. Even when Ethan finally settles into his golden years, there is still adventure ahead as he mentors energetic young pastor Hudson Taylor. Hudson discovers, just as you will, that there is much more to this old pastor than meets the eye. The Surrender of Ethan Moses is a truly inspirational story, told by one of God's angels about one of God's humble servants. It offers a compelling, intriguing account of how all of us should endeavor to live our lives as Christians.
