East Asian Cinemas: Regional Flows and Global Transformations

The recent international success of films from East Asia has stimulated critical reflections on the changing cinemascapes in the region. This collection of essays presents a selection of in-depth analyses of the latest developments in East Asian cinemas in the age of globalization. Organised into three thematic clusters—the East Asian Cinemascapes, Genre and Transnational Aesthetics; Screen Cultures and Identity Politics; and Filmmakers on Filmmaking—the articles embody a diversity of critical perspectives from academic researchers as well as industry practitioners.
