Laberinto Queer,El (G) (Spanish Edition) Susana López Penedo

Este libro explica la génesis de la teoría queer y su desarrollo, analizando y recopilando los diferentes discursos que se ven implicados en ella. Ofrece al lector de habla hispana unas claves de lectura para un nuevo concepto crítico nacido en el mundo anglosajón, poco conocido aún en España pero imprescindible para comprender los parámetros en los que se mueven los estudios sobre género y la homosexualidad a día de hoy.

Debido a la complejidad del concepto, una de las finalidades de Laberinto queer es llegar a una definición; por ello, aborda una serie de cuestiones epistemológicas para precisar en qué consiste esta teoría, revisando conceptos tales como sexualidad, poder y política para explicar finalmente el contexto histórico que dio lugar al nacimiento del activismo queer. Por esta razón, es inevitable revisar los últimos planteamientos abordados por el feminismo, la filosofía de la posmodernidad y los estudios culturales.

La parte central del libro reflexiona sobre los pilares fundamentales de la teoría ¿una identidad en continuo proceso de construcción y la articulación del deseo en la práctica de una sexualidad no normativa?, abordando cuestiones como el supuesto fin de las ideologías o el mito de la desaparición de las clases sociales, sin descuidar un análisis de las consecuencias que conlleva la globalización y el actual papel del activismo en la sociedad civil.

Este libro se hace eco del interés que despertó el ensayo Teoría queer publicado por la Editorial Egales en 2005, ampliando los planteamientos que en él aparecían esbozados en torno a este argumento.
