One Minute Stewardship Sermons Jr, Charles Cloughen

This collection of inspirational messages reflects on the many aspects of stewardship that congregations—both large and small—experience throughout the year. Designed for use at the offertory each Sunday, they may also be incorporated into the sermon or printed in the bulletin.

This resource provides scores of different ways for clergy and leaders to connect the mission and vision of the local church with the stewardship of its members' time, abilities, and financial resources.

Includes input from a dozen contributors representing several denominations and congregations of all sizes.
