García Márquez canta un bolero: Una relectura en clave musical de la obra del nobel colombiano (Otras Eutopías) (Spanish Edition) César Coca García

Hay muchas lecturas posibles de la obra periodística y literaria de Gabriel García Márquez. Una de ellas es a través de las referencias musicales, porque cuantas canciones, partituras, ritmos, autores e intérpretes aparecen en sus páginas están íntimamente vinculados a su propia vida. Incluso a veces sus novelas y sus reportajes se comunican entre sí a través de la música, de manera que un título concreto o un compositor aparecen aquí y allá, en lo que puede entenderse como la búsqueda de la complicidad del lector, un guiño que nos hace pensar en sus experiencias de melómano empedernido. Este libro desvela esas claves y pone a la luz la vinculación, también en este aspecto, de sus relatos con su propia vida.
