The WPA Guide to the Minnesota Arrowhead Country is a vivid word-picture of the northeastern part of the state, long famed for the breathtaking beauty of its landscape, the colorful variety of its ethnic groups, and the worldwide impact of its industries. First published in 1941, this unique guide has much more than nostalgia to offer today's readers. Forty-seven city, town, and village profiles; fifteen canoe trips; and four auto tours tell the stories of the region's people and places and offer a fascinating alternative to freeway travel. Essays on major themes such as native peoples, history, architecture, transportation, and recreation provide an authentic self-portrait of 1940s Minnesota in humorous, loving, and literary prose. In a new introduction, Minnesota Public Radio's Cathy Wurzer shares the story behind this guidebook's creation--from the two politically active women who edited it to the group of businessmen and boomers who helped get it published.
