Cumbres borrascosas (Colección Sepan Cuantos: 119) (Spanish Edition) Emily Bronte

Cumbres borrascosas no trata de una mera historia de amor como muchos comentaristas se han obstinado en creer; de ser así sería una historia llena de incoherencias. Sobre esta novela se ha escrito: "... hay amor, pero no es el amor entre hombres y mujeres. El conflicto no es el de te amo o te odio, sino el establecido entre nosotros, la raza humana y ustedes, los poderes eternos."

En la presentación de violentas relaciones personales sin ningún afán moralista, Emily desmitificaba un mundo de costumbres taciturnas e ideas de respetabilidad. Todo aquello que de una u otra manera se consideró más tarde constitutivo de la "moral victoriana" resultaba ignorado, omitido, tácitamente despreciado en Cumbres borrascosas.

La primera publicación de esta novela (1847) escandalizó por igual a público y crítica. Brutal, confuso, amoral, innoble, salvaje, fueron adjetivos reiteradamente usados en las reseñas de prensa. No se sabe hasta qué grado esta reacción desmoralizó a su joven autora. Lo cierto es que al año siguiente murió sin saber que había escrito una de las más extraordinarias y revolucionarias novelas del siglo.
