Love Worth Knowing Denise Lorenz

In this thought-provoking book the author clarifies the often misunderstood meaning of God's love for you. In today's society especially people in every nation seek to understand what the phrase, "God loves you" really means. More so now than ever answers are being sought. Every moment of every day, whether you realize it or not God presents Himself to you. But all too often those signs are missed, and most often when you are seeking some sort of help or clarification about life and love. As much as you try to convince yourself that you are lost, this book will help you find that clarification and realization that God is present and God is love. Cleverly, this book can be used as a devotional and is written in a style that is understandable. You will become more aware of God's presence in your daily life. And in turn you will have the ability to grow your love with God naturally and deeply. This book will become an essential part of your life and love, and each time you read it new answers will become present.
