This Adventure Called Life: Discovering Your Divine Design Kent Ingle

You were destined for greatness. That doesn't necessarily mean you'll have significant power over masses of people or that you'll have riches untold. The greatness Kent Ingle talks about is more valuable than power, position, or prestige. It's about living a life of significance and meaning.

You only discover your greatness when you accept the call to adventure. In doing so, new things will happen for you. You'll need to let go of what may be comfortable in preparation for the journey. You'll need to consider new options as you explore new territory. You'll need to take steps forward in faith as you live your divine design.

You can decide to become all God created you to be.
