Trata de mujeres con fines de explotación sexual (Monografías) (Spanish Edition) Agustina Iglesias Skulj

El fenómeno de la globalización de la economía ha traído como consecuencia que cada vez mas operadores económicos desplieguen su actividad en diversos Estados. En este contexto, la crisis que actualmente azota la economía a nivel mundial ha puesto de manifiesto la trascendencia de arbitrar mecanismos eficaces para hacer frente a los procesos de insolvencia que, con una frecuencia cada vez mayor, presentan un carácter marcadamente internacional. La complejidad que caracteriza al proceso concursal se ve notablemente acentuada en los procesos de insolvencia transfronteriza debido a la diversidad de legislaciones en juego y a la dificultad de su armonización. Consciente de esta problemática el legislador comunitario, sin establecer un proceso uniformador, marca, a través del Reglamento 1346/2000, los principios o directrices básicos que han de ser tenidos en cuenta por las legislaciones de los distintos Estados de la Unión. En esta monografía se analiza la tramitación procedimental y los principales problemas de índole procesal que pueden plantearse y que presentan una idiosincrasia peculiar por la propia naturaleza del concurso con elemento extranjero.
