Tina is a twenty-six-year-old psychiatrist, who struggles with abandonment issues which causes her to love hard. She and her first love, Tune, are madly in love with one another. Even though he's taken her through hell and back, she still continues to stick it out. After Tune get's locked up, Tina ends up in the arms of another man named, Cartaz. While Cartaz believes that he and Tina are soul mates, she's only looks at him as merely something to do to pass time until Tune is released. What Tina doesn't know is when that time comes, Cartaz isn't going away as easily as she may think. After spending the last five years in prison, Tune is finally getting out and his only focus is on his music career and his family; which includes Tina, and his son. He wants so bad to leave his old life behind, but with Tina's crazed ex Cartaz, popping in and out of their lives, it's extremely hard. Will Tune be able to leave his street life in the past and make it work with Tina, or will he allow someone to come in and destroy everything? Find out in, You Can't Love Every Thug.
