Renatino & Kiaramella (Italian Edition) Silvia Spinelli

La favola illustrata, rivolta a bambini in età pre-scolare e scolare, verte sul rapporto fra cibo ed emozioni.

L'obiettivo è quello di insegnare ai bambini a mettere in relazione il cibo con un'esigenza corporea di nutrizione, ed a non utilizzarlo come strumento attraverso il quale manifestare disagi o malcontenti. Ad ogni bambino può capitare di provare paura, rabbia, tristezza; tutte emozioni che possono essere affrontate nel modo sbagliato, veicolandole sul canale alimentare.

Renatino, magro come un grissino, mangia poco perché ha la pancia piena di emozioni negative (la gelosia per il fratellino, le prese in giro dei compagni, l'assenza lavorativa del papà) .

Chiara invece, detta Kiaramella per la sua abitudine a masticare caramelle, è in sovrappeso: si alimenta in modo eccessivo perché mangia distratta da mille cose e non riesce a capire cosa le dice la sua pancia, non si accorge se è sazia o no.

I bambini si conosceranno nella sala d'aspetto della dottoressa Frida, che nonostante il pessimo carattere e i modi burberi, li aiuterà a capire come migliorare le loro abitudini alimentari, coinvolgendoli in prima persona nel processo di consapevolezza ed ascolto attivo del corpo.
