This book, composed of personal compositions, is an attempt to enrich the Greek guitar repertory with pieces, coming from different musical genres, which contain a wealth of technical requirements for the middle class.

During middle class, student is asked to slowly conquer maturity in his playing, passing from the "child" in the "adolescent" stage of guitar and many of the pieces - experiences he learns during this stage, he "carries" with him/her technically as well as melodically, for a very long time.

In this book you will find pieces of all "levels" of the middle class. Pieces for newcomers in the class (The Secret of the rock), pieces to learn being especially expressive (Once upon a time, a time of cynicism), pieces demanding as to the rhythm of execution (Mobility, Spark), increased difficulty pieces (The song of the Elder, Ren' Que).
