"One evening after dinner Nan and Larry Terkos stepped off the sidewalk in front of their home into another existence."

So begins "Master of Dagoncrag," a fantasy novel for young readers. Without knowing it, Nan and Larry, 12 and 10, are answering a call for help from Troverworld, a land of magic and adventure akin to Tolkien's Middle Earth and C. S. Lewis's Narnia.

The Trovers, an ancient race, are dying out. A wicked visitor from our world has learned their high magic and made himself Master of Dragoncrag Castle, imprisoning the Steward of Troverworld in a snake's body. To make it home Nan and Larry must confront danger and evil and hope to come away with their skins and souls intact.
